Introduction of Hungkar Dorje Rinpoche

Tulku Hungkar Dorje was born in Golog in Amdo and is known to be the rebirth of the great Nyingma master Do Khyentse. Since he was a child, he has studied under his father, Orgyen Kusum Lingpa, and other lamas, various branches of knowledge and the Buddhist teachings of all Tibetan schools.

He is presently the abbot of Lung Ngön Monastery in Golog, which is quite well known in east Tibet as a major monastery where about a thousand monks receive teachings, study, and practice.

His teachings focus particularly on kindness and compassion and he is a heartfelt advocate for vegetarianism and non-violence, and believes it is important to educate people on such subjects as harmony amongst humanity.
